

BENJAMIN KRESS ART '00

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29 | 12:00 NOON

Benjamin Kress is an artist working in media and processes that range from painting and drawing to sculpture and photography. His work frequently addresses themes of desire, corporality, presence and absence.

Kress received an MFA from Yale University in 2004. He has exhibited his artwork in the U.S. and abroad; has assisted the artists Matthew Barney, Robert Gober, and Anthony Goicolea; and has worked as a freelance sculptor, illustrator, and painter for commercial clients such as MTV and Hornet Inc.

Kress will present his artwork, talk about his post-Cooper experiences as an artist, and address any topics of interest to the audience, including graduate school, art assisting, freelancing, and gallery relationships.
