

CU @ LUNCH

with Cooper Union
Alumni

John Menick, Art '98

Tuesday
October 2
12 Noon

The Green Room
behind the stage
in the Great Hall

Lunch will be provided.
Please join us.

Sponsored by Career Center/
Alumni Relations

John Menick will show his work and discuss his many undertakings. He is an artist, filmmaker, and writer. His artwork has been exhibited at the P.S.1 Center for Contemporary Art, New York; La Maison Rouge, Paris; Palais de Tokyo, Paris; The Centre for Contemporary Arts, Glasgow, among other venues. His latest short fiction film, Occupation (2006), about urbanism and immigration in France has been screened in film festivals throughout Europe.

Mr. Menick has contributed to many artist-run groups, including Nomads & Residents, 16 Beaver Group, and The Thing. In addition, he recently finished a feature-length screenplay about a modern-day wild child, is developing a documentary investigating the obscure corners of psychiatry, and is at work on a series of sculptures relating to standardized time. Details about his work can be found at <http://www.johnmenick.com>.