

RON MARTIN ART '08

TUESDAY, MARCH 10 | 12:00 NOON

Ron Martin will discuss how he balances dual roles as an artist and administrator; the value of tactical writing skills in a contemporary art career; the importance of foreign exchange programs; and the curious experiences he has encountered in the field of public arts management.

Mr. Martin is exhibiting art as part of Plantattion, a new group he co-founded with Thai artist, Att Poomtangon. This year, Plantattion will have shows at the Venice Biennale's 53rd International Art Exhibition: Making Worlds, the Poritkus Gallery in Frankfurt, as well as a show in New York with assistance from the Whitney Museum of American Art.
