Yuri Masnyj's art was featured in the Whitney Biennial 2006: Day for Night and Greater New York 2005 at P.S.1 Contemporary Art Center. The Whitney Biennial curators characterized Mr. Masnyj as critical of "the ways the lofty social and political ambitions of the Russian Constructivists have been drained of effect in their recapitulation as now-empty formal structures to be appropriated for mere decoration." Mr. Masnyj will present his art and talk about his experience as an exhibiting artist.

The talk will be followed by a brief presentation by a representative of the College Art Association (CAA) to introduce Cooper students to this professional organization for artists, educators, historians, scholars, and curators. The speaker will highlight free events surrounding the upcoming conference in New York City.
