

FULBRIGHT FELLOWSHIP

INFORMATION SESSION

WITH

BRIAN TURNER ARCH '06

Brian Turner will talk about his experience as a Fulbright Fellow in Fukuoka, Japan, at Kyushu University. Mr. Turner undertook a study of Japanese carpentry and the roots of Shinto and Buddhist architecture in Japan. He will discuss his research, travels, and experiences as an American entering into the world of Japanese craftsmen. In addition, he will show a selection of photographic work that he completed during the fellowship.

Gwen Hyman, Director of the Center for Writing & Language Arts and The Cooper Union's Fulbright Program Adviser, will join Mr. Turner to field questions about applying for a Fulbright Fellowship.
